

Seat Altea 1.6 Stylance 5dr | Mar 2008

SORRY NOW SOLD

£2,995

The Seat Altea is one of those cars that may sneak under the radar of some used car buyers. Yet it's a well-rounded family vehicle that offers practicality, comfort, good equipment levels and a dynamic drive.

Sharp looks, excellent reliability, a strong 1.6 engine and generous equipment levels make this a tempting used buy. Most importantly, though, for a people carrier, the Altea is also practical and comfortable. So if you're after great family transport, don't overlook this stylish Spaniard.

This particular vehicle is what I refer to as 'just one of those cars' by that I mean a car that comes along that simply surpasses what you would normally expect of a car of this age and price - it is in simply fantastic condition both inside and out. It has had only 1, clearly meticulous, lady owner who has kept this car in simply stunning condition. It has been taken to Agnew Seat for all its servicing requirements who have serviced it a total of 10 times!!! - Trust me don't miss this one.
