

Volkswagen Polo 1.0 Match 3dr | Feb 2017

SORRY NOW SOLD

£7,995

Now in its fifth generation, the Polo looks more like a shrunken Golf than ever.

And that pretty neatly sums up what Volkswagen has tried to offer with this current version: all the positive attributes of the Golf, just in a smaller, more affordable package. The derivative styling and bigger dimensions are designed to make the Polo feel even more mature, while the Scirocco-inspired nose and lights add the merest touch of flair. This is a polished, mature-feeling, spacious supermini, and given its specification it's competitively priced. It also rides well. If these are your priorities, the Polo is as good as, if not better than, any other small car you could buy.

This particular car is in totally immaculate condition both inside and out and has had only 1 local Lady private owner from new. It was originally supplied by Edwin May Volkswagen in Portadown who have serviced it 4 times. We have just carried out a service ourselves and fitted a brand new set of tailored carpet mats as a finishing touch, so this car is ready to go.
