The Honda Civic is definately the hatchback you buy if you're after practicality and reliability. Launched in 2012 the Civic is a rival to the likes of the Ford Focus, Volkswagen Golf and Vauxhall Astra. Some people need little more than the knowledge that a car will be totally reliable between services, not cost a packet to run, and be comfortable and quiet on the move. These people should buy a Honda Civic.

This particular example is in simply stunning condition both inside and out. Originally registered to Donnelly Honda in Sept 2013 it has had only 1 lady owner since then who took delivery of it in Jan 2014. Upon inspection it will become clear that she clearly cherished this car and maintained it to the highest of standards taking it to Honda for all of its 7 services - the last being in Nov 2020 at 53558 miles.

This is just one of those cars that ticks every box, if you can try not to miss this one.
